

Training

Mishawn Purnell-O'Neal is an experienced trainer, lecturer and public health professional. She holds a Masters in Public Health and throughout the last decade has served an Adjunct Faculty within several Colleges and Universities throughout Illinois.

She has contributed her expertise to a variety of conferences and trainings:

National Maternal Nutrition Intensive Course/University of Minnesota School of Public Health

Ohio Lactation Consultants Association

American Public Health Association

La Leche League International- Area State Conferences

Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses (AWHONN)

Purnell-O'Neal is available to speak at conferences, conduct workshops and trainings and/or consult on a wide range of public health topics. Trainings can be conducted as stand-alone events, or can be designed to compliment existing workshops and events.

Training areas include but are not limited to:

Breastfeeding and Diversity

Breastfeeding Promotion and Empowerment

Breastfeeding and Health Care Providers

Stress Management

Health

Nutrition

For more information or to book Purnell-O'Neal for an event call toll-free 1.877.541.6962 or email mishawnpurnell@msn.com